LATIN ;—SECOND METHOD.—1. Cæsar's Gallie War, Books I.—IV. (or Books I.—III. and Sallust's Catiline) ; Cicero's Orations against Catiline and for Archias, with questions on the subject matter and on grammar ; Virgil's Æneid, Books I.—VI. (or Eclogues and Æneid, Books I.—V.) ; with questions on the subject matter and on prosody.

2. Translation at sight of average passages from Cæsar, Cicero's Orations, the Æneid, and Ovid's Metamorphoses, with general questions on grammar, prosody, history and antiquities suggested by the prescribed passages.

3. Translation into Latin of a passage of connected English narrative based upon some portion of the prescribed prose.

GREEK ;—FIRST METHOD.*—Greek Grammar ; twenty exercises in Jones' Greek Prose Composition ; four books of Xenophon's Anabasis, or one hundred pages of Goodwin's Greek Reader ; three books of Homer's Iliad.

GREEK ;—SECOND METHOD.—Translation at sight of average passages in the Anabasis and in the Iliad (the candidate being supplied with a vocabulary of the less usual words). with questions upon grammar, mythology, antiquities, etc., suggested by the passage.

*The candidate may select either of the two methods of examination. The second method has been adopted and recommended by the Association of New England Colleges.

MATHEMATICS.—Arithmetic. with the Metric System; Algebra through Quadratic Equations, including Radical Quantities, together with Proportion. Arithmetical and Geometrical Progressions, and the Binomial Theorem for positive integral exponents; Plane Geometry.

ENGLISH.—1. A short composition, correct in spelling, punctuation, division into paragraphs, grammar and expression, on a theme drawn from one of several books previously designated.

2. Criticism of specimens of incorrect English.

1883.—At the examinations, the theme will be drawn from one of the following books: Shakespeare's Julius Cæsar; the Roger DeCoverley papers in the Spectator; Macaulay's Essay on Addison; Thackeray's Henry Esmond; Scott's Marmion.

1884.—The theme for 1884 will be drawn from one of the following books: Shakespeare's Julius Cæsar and Merchant of Venice; Thackeray's Henry Esmond; Irving's Sketch-Book; Scott's Lady of the Lake; Carlyle's Essay on Burns; Burns' Cotter's Saturday Night.

1885.—The theme for 1885 will be drawn from one of the following books: Shakespeare's Macbeth and Merchant of Venice; First two Books of Milton's Paradise Lost; Irving's Sketch-Book; George Eliot's Silas Marner; Dickens' Tale of Two Cities; Emerson's Essay on Eloquence in Society and Solitude.

FRENCH.—Keetels' Elementary Grammar, or Otto's Grammar, Part I.

ANCIENT HISTORY.—History of Greece to the death of Alexander, with outlines of Greek Geography; History of Rome to the death of Marcus Aurelius, with outlines of Roman Geography.

EQUIVALENTS.—Full equivalents will be accepted instead of the text-books named, but Greek and Latin prose will not be received as a substitute for poetry.

ADVANCED STANDING.—Candidates for advanced standing are examined in the requirements for admission to the College, and also in the studies which have been pursued by the class they wish to enter. For the particular books in Greek, Latin, or Modern Languages studied by each class, equivalent amounts may be offered from other books in the same language.

TIME AND ORDER OF EXAMINATIONS.—The first examinations for admission begin at 9 o'clock A. M., on Thursday (June 21st, 1883) of the week preceding Commencement, and continue for two days. The result of these examinations will be sent to the candidates, by mail, within two weeks after the examinations are held.

The second examinations for admission begin at 9 o'clock A. M., on the last Tuesday of the Summer vacation (September 4th, 1883), and continue for two days.

The order of examinations, both in June and September, will be as follows :

FIRST DAY.

9	A. M.	Registration.	2	P. M.	Arithmetic.
9.30	"	English.	3	"	Algebra.
11.15	"	French.	4.15	"	Geometry.

SECOND DAY.

8	A. M.	Anabasis and Greek Prose Composition.
9.30	"	Iliad.
11.15	"	Ancient History.
2	P. M.	Latin Prose Composition.
3	"	Cæsar, Cicero and Latin Grammar.
4.15	"	Virgil, Ovid and Latin Prosody.

Applicants for examination should present themselves promptly at 9 o'clock, on the first day of examination, at College Hall.

Before examination, the candidate must exhibit satisfactory testimonials of good moral character.

REQUIRED AGE.—No one can be admitted to the Freshman Class until he has completed his fifteenth year, and no one to an advanced standing without a corresponding increase of age.

CONDITIONS.—Candidates for admission, who remain conditioned after the September examination, or receive conditions at that time, will be required to study under a teacher authorized by the examiners, and a small fee will be charged. It is, therefore, desirable that as many as possible present themselves at the June examination, that they may have an opportunity to cancel any conditions then received, in September.

PORTER PRIZE.—Students entitled to admission on certificates in Latin and Greek must pass the regular entrance examinations at the time specified in the catalogue, if they wish to compete for the Porter Prize. and the Prize will be awarded in accordance with the result of these examinations.

ROOMS AND BOARD.—Information in relation to rooms or boarding places may be obtained by applying to the College Janitor, Lansford Gates, No. 20 North College.

HEBREW.—Genesis; four hours a week.

SANSKRIT.—Whitney's Grammar: Hitopadeça; two hours a week.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES.

A student whose recommendations have been approved, and whose examinations have shown him capable of admission to Amherst College, is received as a gentleman, and as such is trusted to conduct himself, in truthfulness and uprightness, in kindness and respect, in diligence and sobriety, in obedience to law and maintenance of order, and regard for Christian institutions as becomes a member of a Christian college.

The privileges of the college are only granted to those who are believed to be worthy of this trust, and are forfeited whenever this trust is falsified.

The course of the College is arranged according to the best judgment of the Trustees and the Faculty, to secure for each student the best training for his subsequent life. To this end the following rules need to be observed :—

1. The work assigned the student should be suited to his capacity, and be neither more nor less than will exercise all his powers.

2. The student should be studious, making the utmost improvement of his time and talents in regularly and diligently doing what the College assigns him.

3. As no student should be received as a member of a class, whose character is not good, or whose attainments are insufficient for the work of the class, so no student should be continued in a class for which, either in deportment or in scholarship, he is unfitted.

4. As this unfitness should only be determined by the actual deficiencies of a student, a correct record should be kept of his attendance and work. Such recitations and reviews should be held during each term in the work assigned for the term, as shall give every student the opportunity to show fairly whether he has sufficiently mastered the study to warrant his proceeding in the prescribed course of the class. If he has been present at nine-tenths of the exercises of his class in a given department of study, and if his attainment therein shall be satisfactory to his teacher, he shall be deemed qualified, without further examination, to proceed with the work of the next term. If, however, he shall have failed of this attendance or attainment, he should forfeit his standing in his class, unless he shall pass a special examination in the work of the term, the minuteness of which should be proportioned to the degree of his failure.

5. These examinations, for which preparation should be made under the direction of a competent teacher, should be held at the beginning of the term following the failure. If a student is not then prepared to sustain the examination due in any given department of study, he is obviously unprepared to proceed with profit in the advancing study of that department, and should wait before attempting to do this until his examination therein shall be completely sustained.

6. As religious worship is no less important than his study to a student, and as regular physical exercise is indispensable to sound health, any one absenting himself during any term from one-tenth of the daily religious services of the College, or the Sabbath services, or the stated exercises in the gymnasium, unless specially excused therefor by the Dean or the Faculty, should be excluded from the further privilege of the College.

7. The College is divided into six sections:—The section of English; the section of Ancient Languages; the section of Modern Languages; the section of Mathematics; the section of Natural Science; and the section of Philosophy. Grade of scholarship in each of these sections is marked on a scale of 5.

8. Every student who has completed his work in each section may be admitted to the degree of A. B., and receive a diploma in testimony of the same. If his average scholarship shall be represented by the number 2, his diploma may be given rite; if by 3, cum laude; if by 4, magna cum laude; and if by 5, summa cum laude. No student should be entitled to a diploma whose work in any section is incomplete. Such student, however, may receive a certificate of his actual attainments.

SPECIAL AND PARTIAL COURSE.

Persons who do not wish to pursue the course required for the degree of Bachelor of Arts are admitted, when approved by the Faculty, to the privileges of the Institution and permitted to carry forward a select course of study. At the end of the course, a certificate of their attainments can be received from the President.

RESIDENT GRADUATES.

Graduates who wish to pursue a more extended course of study in any department can do so by making arrangements with the College for that purpose.

DEGREE OF MASTER OF ARTS.

Candidates for the degree of Master of Arts in course must be graduates of at least three years' standing and must have spent at least two years in professional or other liberal studies. In ordinary cases they must be recommended by the Faculty. Graduates who wish to obtain this degree should send their request to the Faculty, with appropriate vouchers, on or before the twentieth day of June.

EXERCISES.

There are either three Recitations, or two Recitations and two Lectures daily, excepting Wednesday and Saturday, when one Recitation is omitted.

There are also weekly rhetorical exercises for each class. From the Seniors and Juniors, compositions, original declamations, and debates are required; from the Sophomores and Freshmen, written abstracts, and declamations. For the declamations, preparation is made by private rehearsal.

Public worship is held in the College Church every Sunday, and there are prayers in the Chapel every week-day morning. Every Thursday evening there is preaching or some other religious exercise, which the students are invited to attend. There are class prayer-meetings regularly on Sunday evenings.

Students connected with other denominations will be allowed to attend church services regularly with them, by application to the Dean, with a request from parents or guardians in case of minors.

LIBRARIES.

The Libraries of the College and of the Literary Societies contain about forty-three thousand volumes. The College Library and Reading Room are open every day (Sundays and Holidays excepted), from nine to half-past eleven o'clock, A. M., and from half-past one to four o'clock, P. M. Books of reference may be consulted at any hour when the Reading Room is open. The Libraries of the two Literary Societies have been incorporated with that of the College, but are accessible only to members of the societies. The Social Union Reading Room, No. 1 North College, is open every day except Sunday.

APPARATUS FOR MATHEMATICAL AND PHYSICAL SCIENCE.

THE LAWRENCE OBSERVATORY is furnished with instruments for accurate astronomical observations. The pier in the centre of the tower sustains a refracting telescope, mounted equatorially, having a focal length of nine feet and an aperture of seven and one-fourth inches. The transit room contains the usual equipment for meridian observations. The observatory also contains an altitude and azimuth instrument, and instruments of the latest and best construction, for surveying and engineering.

The collection of Apparatus for Experiments in Natural Philosophy is extensive, and well adapted for a course of experimental illustrations. It occupies a room in the second story of WALKER HALL, where ample accommodations are furnished for its arrangement and use.

The Chemical Laboratory and Lecture Room occupy the first story of WILLISTON HALL. These rooms are furnished with apparatus for a complete course of chemical experiments.

COLLECTIONS OF NATURAL HISTORY.

The collections illustrating Natural History and Human Antiquities are deposited in the two buildings known as the Woods Cabinet, and the Appleton Cabinet.

The WOODS CABINET is named in honor of the Hon. Josiah B. Woods, of Enfield, its principal donor. It contains all the Geological Collections of the College, consisting of the general American and European Collections, the State Survey Collections of New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts and Connecticut, and the Shepard Meteorite Collection, comprising in all above 25,000 specimens. An adjoining room, called the Nineveh Gallery, built by Enos Dickinson, of Amherst, contains specimens obtained by Dr. Henry Lobdell from the ruins of ancient Nineveh and Babylon. It exhibits sculptured slabs from the palace walls of Sardanapalus at Nimroud, and many antique coins, seals and cylinders from the same cities.

In the APPLETON CABINET, named from the Hon. Samuel Appleton, of Boston, are the Hitchcock Ichnological Collection, the Gilbert Museum of Indian Relics, and the Adams Zoölogical Collection.

In the Ichnological Collection, named after President Hitchcock, are to be found about 1,400 specimens, containing at least 20,000 tracks of animals in stone, together with plaster and clay casts of tracks of living and extinct species of animals. The Museum of Indian Relics receives its name from the Hon. George H. Gilbert, of Ware, by whose liberality it was mainly established. It comprises about 3,500 specimens of the stone implements of extinct Indian tribes, principally those who lived in the Connecticut Valley. The Zoölogical Collection was principally gathered and arranged by Professor Charles B. Adams. It comprises prepared specimens of animals and their habitations, and dried plants, representing all the great groups of the animal and vegetable kingdoms. In the department of shells it is particularly extensive and valuable. A collection in Comparative Osteology, and the elastic models of Auzoux are incorporated with the Zoölogical Collection.

The collections arranged in these several cabinets contain more than 100,000 specimens of the animal, mineral and vegetable kingdoms.

The cabinets are open to the public each week-day, from ten to eleven o'clock, A. M., and from three to four o'clock, P. M., when the custodians will be in attendance.

PHYSICAL CULTURE.

The BARRETT GYMNASIUM, named in honor of Dr. Benjamin Barrett, of Northampton, is open to the members of the College for voluntary exercise, and at an appointed hour each class is required to be present and engage in exercise under the direction of the Professor of Hygiene. The required exercises consist almost entirely of the light gymnastics, the movements of which are guided and timed by music, while the heavy and more difficult gymnastic work is entirely at the option of the student. No effort is required of any student which cannot be safely and profitably undertaken by any person who is sound in body and mind.

The Professor in this department is a physician, and, as far as possible, is expected to be acquainted with the physical condition of each student in town during term-time. All students are permitted to consult him without charge.

A series of Anthropometric statistics is taken of each man on entering College, and repeated once each year during the course.

GALLERY OF ART.

This room contains a large and choice collection of casts of ancient and modern statuary. The gallery is open to the public each week day, at the same hours as the Scientific Collections.

EXPENSES.

The following are the principal necessary expenses, exclusive of vacations :

General Term Bill, including Tuition, Library,
Gymnasium, and all ordinary incidentals,
per year,	$100.00	$100.00
Room Rent in College, from $6.00 to $15.00 per term,	18.00	45.00
Room Rent in private houses, per year,	40.00	60.00
Fuel and Lights, from $12.00 to $18.00	12.00	18.00
Board from $3.00 to $5.00 per week, or per year
of thirty-eight weeks ,	114.00	190.00

An additional expense of $10.00 per term is incurred by those students who elect work in the Chemical Laboratory during the Junior year.

The expenses for Room Rent, Fuel and Lights, are estimated on the supposition that two students occupy the same room. For a few choice rooms, both in College and in town, a higher rent is charged.

There are some expenses which result from taxes voluntarily imposed by the classes or societies. These, and expenses for furniture, stationery, etc., will vary according to circumstances and the character and habits of the student.

PAYMENTS.

One-half of the annual charges is due on the first of October, and is to be paid within two weeks thereafter. The balance becomes due April 15th, and is to be paid before May 1st.

A bond, with satisfactory surety for the payment of all the College bills, must be given by each student to the Treasurer, at the commencement of the term when he enters.

SCHOLARSHIPS.

The College has a large fund, five sixths of whose income are appropriated to worthy young men who are preparing for the Christian ministry, while one sixth goes to the perpetual increase of the principal. The income available is usually sufficient to cancel the general Term Bill of all such students, and sometimes more. Each of these students ordinarily obtains from the American Education Society also about one hundred dollars annually.

Scholarships have been founded by the State of Massachusetts, by individuals, and by College classes. These endowments are intended to assist those who need pecuniary aid, and most of them are designed only for those of superior scholarship. The names of the donors, and the annual incomes of their respective gifts, are as follows:—
